

Dear Ladies, fellow members of Women's International Clubs Worldwide,

As many of you may not have visited Greece, I am including some photographs that may inspire you to visit our amazing country, the birth place of democracy, full of exciting things to see and experience.

Year end is always a time for reflection and as I look back over 2008 I remember many gloriously happy moments and some very sad moments, some of them man-made, some of them hazards of nature, some of them things that just happen – no one is immune and just knowing that is what brings us all together – I often tell my fellow members of WIC Athens that our Club is there to see us through thick and sometimes very thin times. As women, we all want the same things, freedom, respect, food and education for our children, tolerance and compassion and a willing and helping hand when things are bad and some one to share our joys with when the sun shines upon us.

With this in mind, I send you all every good wish at this festive season with lots of laughter, fun and happy memories to carry you into the New Year that I hope and pray will bring you all wonderful surprises, health, peace of mind and spirit, and plenty of energy to achieve great things for all whose lives you touch!

*Very fondly, from the
